Mrs. McKinley Gone to Select Her Inaugural Gown-The Major's Visitors. CANTON, O., Jan. 25-The west-bound Pennsylvania train to-night carried Mrs. McKinley and her sister, Mrs. M. C. Barber, and Captain Heistand, as passengers. They are to be the guests of Captain and Mrs. McWilliams, of Chicago, their cousins, for several days. At present Major McKinley does not expect to join his wife in Chicago. Much has been said and written concerning Mrs. McKinley's inaugural gown, and some of Sunday's metropolitan papers contained an alleged full description of the dress, together with illustrations of Major and Mrs. McKinley as they are expected to appear at that event. Inquiry as to their truthfulness was made by a reporter and the positive information was given that not one thread of the inaugural gown had yet been selected. Mrs. McKinley will, possibly, select her costume at Chicago this week, but thus far the nearest approach to the gown is the receipt of samples of goods which were sent a few days ago. Among the early visitors at the McKinley residence this morning were three Tennessee legislators, who came to present the name of H.
